

The Paul Mulrooney Memorial Award of Excellence

Application Criteria

The Paul Mulrooney Memorial Award of Excellence will be given to an employee of an operator member company who has demonstrated excellence in a progressive and continued advancement to and within management positions.

Candidates have to be sponsored by the employer and the award is intended to be given every year but there is no requirement to award one each year. A Selection Committee designated by the ATAC Board of Directors will propose each year's winner among all eligible applicants.

Ideally, the applicant should:

- Have at least 10 years of experience in commercial aviation;
- Have achieved steady progression up to management positions from their entry level positions;
- Be employed by an ATAC operator member in good standing;
- Have demonstrated leadership in team management;
- Have maintained and demonstrated the highest ethical standards;
- Have demonstrated the highest industry safety standards;
- Be willing to act as an ambassador in the promotion of our industry.
- Be passionate in supporting the pathways through education for youth choosing aviation as a career.

Applications must be submitted no later than June 1st. The winner will be selected by a Selection Committee designated by the Board and approved at the August meeting of the ATAC Board of Directors. The prize will be presented at ATAC's Annual General Meeting.
