

Whereas the Deputy Minister of Transport made the Interim Order Respecting Certain Requirements for Civil Aviation Due to COVID-19, No. 79 on March 8, 2023 under subsection 6.41(1.1) of the Aeronautics Act;

And whereas the Minister of Transport believes that the Interim Order is no longer required to deal with a significant risk, direct or indirect, to aviation safety or the safety of the public;

Therefore, the Minister of Transport makes the annexed Order Repealing the Interim Order Respecting Certain Requirements for Civil Aviation Due to COVID-19, No. 79 under subsection 6.41(1) of the Aeronautics Act.

Ottawa, March 17, 2023

Le ministre des Transports,

Original signed by
Omar Alghabra
Minister of Transport

---

<sup>1</sup> S.C. 2004, c. 15, s. 11(1)

<sup>2</sup> R.S., c. A-2

<sup>3</sup> S.C. 2004, c. 15, s. 11(1)

<sup>4</sup> R.S., c. A-2

Order Repealing the Interim Order Respecting Certain Requirements for Civil Aviation Due to COVID-19, No. 79

Repeal

1 The Interim Order Respecting Certain Requirements for Civil Aviation Due to COVID-19, No. 79, made on March 8, 2023, is repealed on the day on which the Minimizing the Risk of Exposure to COVID-19 in Canada Order ceases to have effect.

---

<sup>1</sup> P.C. 2023-75, February 2, 2023